When you make a donation for materials, you make it possible for us to provide education, services and resources to others who are seeking to protect those who are most vulnerable to the threats of euthanasia and assisted suicide.

As a non-profit organization, the International Task Force relies entirely upon donations. We deeply appreciate your support in our effort to make certain that a person's right to receive care is not replaced by a doctor's right to prescribe a deadly drug overdose or administer a lethal injection.
